And a heartfelt thanks to the following sponsors whose services and financial support made this day possible:

Thank you for being part of South Wayne's 3rd Annual PorchFest. We hope you enjoy the day of free music played on the porches of South Wayne. As you stroll Midland, St. Davids, and Windermere, you're bound to hear something that catches your ear, your imagination, and probably your heart. Open your lawn chair or blanket or just have a sit on the lawn and enjoy the day's musical fare.

This day could not have happened without the generosity of the amazing musicians who freely gave of their talents and the welcoming spirit of the families who willingly opened their porches and yards to the musicians and to you, our neighbors, friends, and guests. A big thank you to The Allison, Anderson, Armstrong, Arnold, Ayre, Brogan, Brown, Cahill, Capers, Chapin, Congleton, Deck, Demchyk, DiLella, Dineen, Elortegui, Enderle, Fischer, Flannery, Frazier, Geyelin, Grillo, Hintze, Hurley, Iacone, McCall, McConnell, Moore, Mortensen-Agnew, Murdock, Neeson, Scannapieco, Schraudenbach, Stefanski, Sterge, Strobeck, Subak, Sule, Tumola, Whitmore, Wulfsohn, and Zielinski Families.

Thank you to St. Katharine's Parish for their constant co-operation and generosity. We offer our unending gratitude to Logan Eadon for our terrific logo. A big shout-out to art teacher Joseph Checcia of St. Katharine's School and the young artists that added to the celebration of the day, as well as to Ashley Pride of Peace, Love, Beads, Parties by APride Designs for generously donating her face-painting skills and pop-up glitter bar to add incalculable joy to the day and to children's faces.

Thank you to all those who helped ensure our safety: Supt. Chris Flanagan and the Radnor Township Police Department, The Radnor Township R.C.P.O., and Mike Pachella and the Valley Forge Military Academy & College student-volunteers.

And finally to the people whose creativity, devotion, kindness, smarts and of course, hard work, make PorchFest happen: all of our fantastic and tireless friends and neighborhood volunteers, financial advisor of boundless energy Susan Stern, graphic designer with a terrific eye Birgitta Sama, publicist for near and far Lisa Warner & Tech Maven extraordinaire, Sue Metzger.
