

11:45 AM

Radnor Pep Band
Marching Windermere to St. Davids

12 PM

Zen Torpedos
201 Windermere
Original songs evoke a nostalgic, R&B retrospective akin to Tom Petty, Black Keys, Allman Brothers, but with a modern twist!

Jimi Kenrick
214 Windermere
A local trio of seasoned musicians creating new music and twisting some unexpected covers just for the love of it! Count among their influences: Elvis Costello, Lyle Lovett, and Bonnie Raitt.

Ted Latham
235 Windermere
The Director of Liturgical Music for St. Katharine's Parish will be featured on guitar and lead vocals, as well as joined by other members of the choir for a variety of hymns and songs.

Fileman's Oblique Standards
319 St. Davids
Acoustic and electric renderings of minor classics and forgotten favorites from a variety of pop, folk, rock, country and blues genres.

How to Trick a Bear
325 Pembroke
With influences from Americana to 80's pop, from bluegrass to Brit-rock, you are bound to find songs that appeal to your sense of great songwriting and musicianship.

John McManus
413 St. Davids
Indie singer-songwriter counts Bob Dylan, Ryan Adams, The Beatles, and Tegan and Sara as his major influences.

Rising Stars
420 St. Davids
The Morellas, an indie rock band, will kick off the session performing originals and covers so everyone can sing along. Micaela Shackelford & Chris Krein will then cover a variety of music within the rock genre, including Green Day, Nirvana, and the Beatles.

1 PM

Radnor Jazz Express
201 Windermere
A Radnor High School student-led group that plays a wide range of favorites from classical jazz to standards to contemporary pop.

Rented Mule
234 Windermere
A foot-stompin' blend of traditional and contemporary bluegrass music blended beautifully on the mandolin, guitar, banjo, dobro, bass, and heart-felt vocals.

The Notables
319 St. Davids
The Haverford School's a capella choir thrives by Beethoven's adage, "Music is a higher revelation than all wisdom and philosophy." The Notables vast repertoire covers genres from classical to pop.

TSP
325 Pembroke
With a great depth of musicality and beautiful harmonies, Benjamin Le (guitar and vocals), J.D. Dougherty (guitar and vocals) and Lisa Baglione (vocals), impart their love of acoustic rock and folk music.

Daddy Claxton and the Squallin' Hobos
416 St. Davids
Listening to Lee Creasy and his Squallin' Hobos bring you back to a time, before recordings, when families walked out to the porch after dinner, instruments in hand, and played folk tunes.

Rising Stars
420 St. Davids
The session begins with Alex Oliva, a singer-songwriter who plays the piano and specializes in pop, R&B, and really loves to sing Motown. Maxie Mandel will follow Alex. Maxie's songs are a mix of folk, jazz, rock and indie pop. She plays piano, bass, electric and acoustic guitars and drums in addition to her first love -- vocals.

Thank you for being part of South Wayne's First Annual PorchFest. Enjoy the day of free music played on the porches of South Wayne. As you stroll St. Davids and Windermere, you're bound to hear something that catches your ear, your imagination, and probably your heart. Open your lawn chair or blanket or just sit on the lawn and enjoy the day's musical fare!

This day could not have happened without the generosity of the amazing musicians who freely give their talents and to the families who opened their porches to their sounds: Anderson, Brown, Cahill, Chapin, Deck, Demchuk, DiLella, Fischer, Flannery, Geyelin, Hurley, Moore, Mortensen-Agnew, Murdock, Neeson, the Sisters of St. Joseph, Stuuts-McLaughlin, Subak and Wulfsohn.

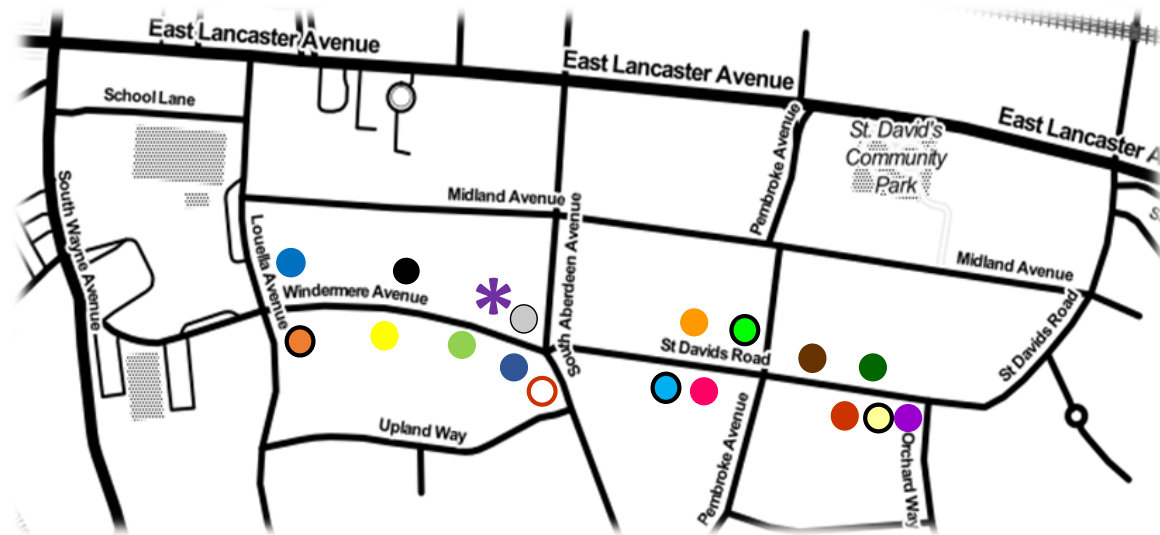

Also many thanks to the people without whose creativity, devotion, kindness, smarts, and of course, hard work, PorchFest would not have happened: musician Chris Lobresco, musicians from the Eastern University Music Dept. Sara Herman & Sarah Joyce, graphic designer and Sunny Side Girl Charlotte Higgins, financial advisor of boundless energy Susan Stern, and tech guru extraordinaire Sue Metzger.
